(the "Fund")
(Adopted 10/20/03; revised 7/18/14)

AMENDED AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Composition of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee shall be composed of at least three Directors as determined by the Board of Directors:

- (a) each of whom shall not be an "interested person" of the Fund, as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, or an "affiliated person" of the Fund, as described in Section 10A(m) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act");
- (b) each of whom shall not accept any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the Fund (other than fees for serving on the Board of Directors or any committee thereof) or have any other relationship to the Fund that may interfere with the exercise of such person's independence from the Fund and Fund management;
- (c) each of whom shall otherwise satisfy the applicable independence requirements for any stock exchange or market quotation system on which Fund shares are listed or quoted;
- (d) each of whom shall be financially literate, as such qualification is interpreted by the Board of Directors in its business judgment, or shall become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Audit Committee; and
- (e) at least one of whom shall have accounting or related financial management expertise as the Board of Directors interprets such qualification in its business judgment.

The Audit Committee shall determine whether at least one member of the Audit Committee is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined in rules promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and shall consider whether any member thereof serves on the audit committee of any other public companies.

One member of the Audit Committee will be designated by the Board of Directors as the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

II. Purposes of the Audit Committee

The function of the Audit Committee is oversight. Fund management is responsible for maintaining appropriate systems for accounting and internal control. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for planning and conducting audits in accordance with the standards established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.

The Audit Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board of Directors, is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm, including the resolution of disagreements regarding financial reporting between Fund management and such independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee should report regularly to the Board of Directors with respect to the matters described in Section III of this Audit Committee Charter. The Fund's independent registered public accounting firm is required to report directly to the Audit Committee.

III. Responsibilities and Duties of the Audit Committee

The policies and procedures of the Audit Committee shall remain flexible to facilitate its ability to react to changing conditions and to generally discharge its functions. The following listed responsibilities describe areas of attention in broad terms.

To carry out its purposes, the Audit Committee shall have the following responsibilities and duties:

- (a) to request information from the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm which would be material to the Audit Committee regarding: (i) the independent registered public accounting firm's registration with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB") and (ii) the written findings of the PCAOB in connection with the PCAOB's inspection of the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm;
- (b) to preapprove all auditing services to be provided to the Fund by the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm*;
- (c) to pre-approve all non-auditing services, including tax services, to be provided to the Fund by the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm; provided, however, that the preapproval requirement with respect to the provision of non-auditing services to the Fund by the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm may be waived by the Audit Committee under the circumstances described in the 1934 Act;
- (d) to ensure that the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm submits on a periodic basis to the Audit Committee a formal written statement delineating all relationships between such independent registered public accounting firm and the Fund, consistent with PCAOB Rule 3526, to actively engage in a dialogue with the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may affect the objectivity and independence of such independent registered public accounting firm, including relationships with or services provided to the Fund's other service providers, and, if deemed appropriate by the Audit Committee, to recommend that the Board of Directors take appropriate action in response to the report of such independent registered public accounting firm to satisfy itself of the independence of such independent registered public accounting firm;

* The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more designated members of the Audit Committee the authority to grant such preapprovals; provided, however, that the Audit Committee shall not delegate preapproval of the audit required by the 1934 Act. The decisions of any member or members of the Audit Committee to whom such authority has been given shall be reported to the full Audit Committee at each of its scheduled meetings.

 The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more designated members of the Audit Committee the authority to grant such preapprovals. The decisions of any member or members of the Audit Committee to whom such authority has been given shall be reported to the full Audit Committee at each of its scheduled meetings.

- (e) to receive and consider specific representations from the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm with respect to the independence of such independent registered public accounting firm, audit partner rotation, and conflicts of interest described in Section 10A(l) of the 1934 Act, and to consider whether the provision of any non-audit services to the Fund by the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm as described in Section III(c) of this Audit Committee Charter is compatible with maintaining the independence of the independent registered public accounting firm;
- (f) to review arrangements for annual and special audits and the scope of such audits with the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm;
- (g) to review and discuss the Fund's audited financial statements with Fund management;
- (h) to discuss with the independent registered public accounting firm those matters required by PCAOB Auditing Standard No. 16 relating to the Fund's financial statements, including, without limitation, any adjustment to such financial statements recommended by such independent registered public accounting firm, or any other results of any audit;
- (i) to cause to be prepared and to review and submit any report, including any recommendation of the Audit Committee, required by SEC Rules to be included in the Fund's annual proxy statement;
- (j) to review legal and regulatory matters presented by counsel and the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm that may have a material impact on the Fund's financial statements;
- (k) to establish and administer policies and procedures relating to: (i) the hiring of employees or former employees of the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm; and (ii) the resolution of any disagreements between Fund management and the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm regarding accounting and/or financial reporting policies and procedures;
- (l) to consider with the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm their comments with respect to the quality and adequacy of the Fund's accounting and financial reporting policies, practices and internal controls and management's responses thereto, including, without limitation, the effect on the Fund of any recommendation of changes in accounting principles or practices by management or the independent registered public accounting firm;
- (m) to receive and consider reports from the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm regarding: (i) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used; (ii) all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with Fund management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent registered public accounting firm; and (iii) other material written communications between the independent registered public accounting firm and Fund management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences;
- (n) to receive reports from the principal executive officer and the principal financial officer, or persons performing similar functions, regarding: (i) all significant deficiencies in the design or operation of Fund internal controls that could adversely affect the Fund's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data and any material weaknesses in internal controls that have been identified for the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm; (ii) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves Fund management or other employees who have a significant role in the Fund's internal controls; and (iii) whether or not there were significant changes in the Fund's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the Fund's internal controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, including any corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses;

- (o) to establish procedures for: (i) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Fund regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;
- (p) to discuss with Fund management and the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm the Fund's policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management and the quality and adequacy of the Fund's internal controls and processes that could materially affect the Fund's financial statements and financial reporting;
- (q) to assist the Fund, if necessary, in preparing any written affirmation or written certification required to be filed with any stock exchange on which Fund shares are listed;
- (r) to at least annually, obtain and review a report by the independent registered public accounting firm describing: the firm's internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review (if any peer review is conducted), of the firm, or by inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issue; and (to assess the independent registered public accounting firm's independence) all relationships between the independent registered public accounting firm and the Fund;
- (s) to review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter on an annual basis and recommend any changes to the Board of Directors; and
- (t) to perform such other functions consistent with this Audit Committee Charter, the Fund's Certificate of Incorporation, the Fund's By-laws, and applicable law, as the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors deems necessary or appropriate.

In fulfilling their responsibilities under this Audit Committee Charter, it is recognized that members of the Audit Committee are not full-time employees of the Fund. As such, it is not the duty or responsibility of the Audit Committee or its members to conduct "field work" or other types of auditing or accounting reviews or procedures. Each member of the Audit Committee shall be entitled to rely on (i) the integrity of those persons and organizations inside and outside the Fund from which the Audit Committee receives information and (ii) the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Audit Committee by such persons or organizations, absent actual knowledge to the contrary (which actual knowledge shall be promptly reported to the Board of Directors).

Fund management is responsible for maintaining appropriate systems for accounting and the reliability and integrity of the Fund's accounting policies and financial reporting and disclosure practices. The Fund's independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for conducting a proper audit of the Fund's financial statements and are ultimately accountable to the Audit Committee. The Audit

Committee has the ultimate authority and responsibility to select (subject, if applicable, to shareholder approval) and evaluate the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm, to determine the compensation of the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm and, where appropriate, to replace the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm.

IV. Meetings

The Audit Committee shall meet regularly with the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm (outside the presence of Fund management) and at least once annually with the representatives of Fund management responsible for the financial and accounting operations of the Fund. The Audit Committee shall hold special meetings at such times as the Audit Committee believes appropriate. Members of the Audit Committee may participate in a meeting of the Audit Committee by means of conference call or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in such meeting can hear each other. Minutes or other records of its meetings and activities should be maintained and reported to the Board of Directors on a regular basis.

V. Assistance from Fund Management; Authority to Engage Advisers; Funding

The appropriate officers of the Fund shall provide or arrange to provide such information, data and services as the Audit Committee may request. The Audit Committee shall have the power and authority to take all action it believes necessary or appropriate to discharge its responsibilities, including the power and authority to retain independent counsel and other advisers. The Fund shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee as a committee of the Board of Directors, for payment of compensation to: (i) the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm and (ii) any advisers employed by the Audit Committee under this Section V.
